

Copy of letter from Hoboken, postmarked 8/23/26, with ¹⁰⁵648
Picture of Anna King.

The Sweet Voiced Singer Anna King.

Born in Hoboken (This is "Pig Woman") in 1875 - Dec. 6th now near 50 or 51 years old. Pig Woman Mary Eisleitner alias Anna King, Jane Easton and now Jane Gibson. In 1898 22 years old.

This Pig Woman now Jane Gibson had husband in sterling N.J. (Divorced her). Had one in Hoboken name Ketchky (he divorced her). This husband Bill Easton no record never was married to him ask her - she lies. Just living with him 23 years and was in 1898 a free Concert Hall singer at 12 a week and drinks in Gansbergs Dance Hall on Washington st. Hoboken, then she was in 1899 Gillens Road house New Brunswick near grave yard Fatty Gillen kept girls and the Baker there knew her well. George Something he was married man - then disorderly house in 17 Fair St., Newark in 1899 - 1900 then Detectives Carson, Coakley and Capt. Uphams raided her at 119 Academy Newark in 1902 - a little boy in 1922 in New Brunswick says she had her corn all in the house nobody wanted to steal her corn (only a manufactured lie) Nellie Russell tells the truth - Pig Woman's a purgerer - wants money -

Yours

A hobokenite and New Yorker
